Forecast For Southwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Thursday 11 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Remaining very windy, especially around coasts, with showers.

This Evening and Tonight:
A mostly dry start to the evening, with the odd scattered shower. Increasing cloud overnight, with an organised band of showers, occasionally heavy, arriving from the west before dawn. Winds remain strong, gusty near downpours. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Friday:
Persistent showers throughout the day, most intense and frequent in the evening, with periods of bright and dry conditions likely early in the day. Windy, with coastal gales developing later. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Blustery showers and sunny spells on the weekend, with risk of hail. Winds remain strong, with gales and severe gales along coasts Saturday, easing Sunday. Cloudy with rain on Monday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.